About the Event

In five years, the Ahimsa House Gala has raised over $125,000 to help the human and animal victims of domestic violence in Georgia reach safety together. Each year, the gala committee enlists the help of corporate sponsors and individual donors to assist in the major undertaking to bring awareness to the link between family violence and animal cruelty and to fund our important, but often overlooked cause.

This event was started in 2011 to support Ahimsa House. Demand for services continue to increase as awareness of our program grows. During this time, the dramatic increase in requests for services caused our programmatic expenses to increase by 124%. The money raised at this event is crucial to ensure that no victim of domestic violence has to choose between seeking safety for themselves or that of a beloved pet.

About Ahimsa House

All of the funds raised during this evening will go toward providing a "safe haven" for the animal victims of domestic violence while their owners seek safety. Since 2004, Ahimsa House has provided over 60,000 nights of emergency safe shelter for animals of all kinds: dogs, cats, birds, rabbits, guinea pigs, gerbils, ferrets, turtles, iguanas, snakes, and even horses. We also provide routine, emergency, and forensic veterinary care; transportation of pets to safety; guidance on protecting pets from abusers via the legal system; a 24-hour statewide crisis line offering information and referrals; financial assistance with pet deposits for transitional housing; and outreach programs to raise both public and professional awareness about the connections between animal abuse and domestic violence.

Without services like ours, as many as half of domestic violence victims delay escaping their abusers because they worry about what will happen to their pets when they leave. Your help will provide victims of domestic violence with pets in Georgia the means to escape from abuse.
